RANCOCAS BRED RACERS.

Mr. William C. Whitney's decision to remove his stallions and broodmares from Kentucky to his recently leased Rancocas farm in New Jersey has elicited considerable discussion, some writers taking the ground that it is doubtful if thoroughbreds can be successfully raised in the more northern state. In an article published in Daily America Judge Joseph J. Burke combats this ill-founded idea by pointing out the late Pierre Lorillard's great success in this country and England with horses bred by him, the natural deduction being that if he could raise and develop high-class racers at Rancocas Mr. Whitney should do so also. The article referred to says:

"No one need have any doubts as to whether or not first-class race horses can be bred at the Rancocas Stud Farm at Jobstown, N. J. It has, of course, been an established nursery for many years, in fact a quarter of a century, and naturally in all that time some high-class horses should have been foaled there, unless it was an absolute impossibility to breed them there. The fact that the late Mr. Pierre Lorillard raced in the past few years practically only those horses bred at Rancocas would go to show that he at least had unbounded faith in the place."

"At different times the stallions doing duty at Rancocas have been Duke of Magenta, Moccasin, Mortimer, Saxon, Kantaka, Sensation, The Sailor Prince, Locohatchee (formerly called Curt Gunn), Simon Magnus (the first son of St. Simon ever imported to this country), Emperor, Iroquois, Falseito, Pontiac, and one or two others of less note. By all odds the most successful of these were Mortimer, The Sailor Prince and Sensation."

"It was in the year 1884 that the first crop of the French horse Mortimer came out, and to say that their successes created a sensation puts it very mildly. Wanda, Chimera, Unrest, Cholula and Exile were all in one stable that season, to say nothing of Katrina, who did not run as a two-year-old, but who was generally reputed to be the best Mortimer foaled. Unfortunately, she was cut down in the September Stakes that fall, and was never able to fulfill the undoubted great promise she showed in private. Exile was claimed out of a selling race at Sheepshead Bay in his two-year-old form, and helped to lay the foundation of the comfortable fortune which William Lakeland has acquired in his long connection with the turf."

"In 1885 the Rancocas Stable was in great form, through its home-bred and imported horses. Pontiac had been imported in utero, sent to England and raced there; then brought back and raced here in 1884, going into winter quarters with no great reputation, for the late Mr. J. G. K. Lawrence handicapped him at only 102 pounds for the Suburban of 1885, which he won, and but for the prohibition of public betting, whereby no bookmakers did business that day, Mr. Lorillard would have probably 'broke the ring' for he won three races that day—namely, with Emperor, Heva and Pontiac, and Gonfalon, bred by him, ran second in the steeplechase."

"The lack of opportunity to back his horses that day was always one of the greatest disappointments of Mr. Lorillard's life, for a keen contest had been waged for years between the members of the ring and the 'Master of Rancocas,' and just when he had a chance to deal them a heavy blow, the law was enforced and public betting prevented. However, it was understood that in the ante-post betting during the winter and spring, Mr. Lorillard had backed Pontiac for the Suburban. Matt Byrnes was the trainer at that period, and until the memorable sale in 1888, when Pontiac, Pontico, Winfred, Dawdrop and Darna were purchased by the Duryea Brothers for $70,000, and Byrnes was asked to continue to train them.

"Mortimer was third on the list of winning sires in 1885, only King Alfonso and Vigil preceding him. Wanda won $29,840; Unrest, $10,408; Cyclops, $4,870; Saranac, $4,120; Katrina, $3,556; Exile, $2,965; Mollie Walton, $1,840; Faience, $1,825; Saluda, $1,800; Pontico, $1,300; Bahama, $900; Hera, $875; Restless, $575; Ariel, $500; Winfred, $400; Nenetzin, $350; Billy Mack, $150; Drone, $75; Welcome, $50. Total, $86,299. None of the following won any money in 1885: Housatonic, Witch, Paul Kernan, John Mullins, Reimdal, Cholula, Naiad and Hoder. In 1884 Mortimer's produce won $49,500. Adding this to the amount won by his get in 1885 and we find that in his first two seasons this great stallion's produce won $115,799, and all were bred at Rancocas."

We now come to the sale of the Rancocas racing stable on Saturday, February 27, 1888. Colonel S. D. Bruce was the auctioneer. As a matter of great interest the record of this eventful transaction is herewith published. In order that purchasers of the present day can see for themselves how well good race horses sold fifteen years ago:

"Of the foregoing list, Drake Carter, Emperor, Greenfield and Walter H. were the only ones not bred at Rancocas. Pontiac was foaled there, though begot in England. Drake Carter was purchased by Mr. Lorillard soon after the terrific mile and a half race at Saratoga, in which he defeated Barnes in 2:36. Walter H. was well known at that period as a Brighton Beach champion. He was owned and raced by a western turfman named D. O'Connor, and was bought by Mr. Lorillard for about $10,000, and ran well after he became his property. His purchaser at the Rancocas sale was once a well known popular saloonkeeper in this city."

by Mr. Charles Reed, formed the Fairfax Stable with the horses bought at the sale. Fitzpatrick was the rider and I think James Rowe trained for him for a time, but the stable did not do well.

"Mr. Lorillard continued to breed at Rancocas, and after some time he came back upon the turf. Lamplighter was his best horse at that time. But whenever he got anything good enough he was determined to race in England, and for the past six seasons, with John Huggins at first and George Blackwell of late, he has been racing horses of Rancocas breeding with remarkably great success. Long after many had passed from his possession they continued to win. Berzak, Diakka, Dolabra, Astolpho, Draco, Glaring, Jiffy II., Meta II., Sandia, Caiman, Chinook, Dominie II., Darie, Elfin, Myakka, Sibola (who should have won the Oaks of her year), Tarolinta, Blast, Democrat, Jolly Tar, Jouvence, Lutetia, Manatee, Pedometer, Perdicus, Violence, Yumboe, Brelogus, Bronzewing, Corypheus, Exed, Golden Horsehoe, Old Buck II., and many others have won sums running up as high as $69,000 in one instance."

"After a hasty look over the carefully prepared list of American winning horses in England in the last four years, as published in Goodwin's Guide, I think it is a conservative statement to make that Rancocas bred horses won in four years (1897 to 1900 inclusive) about $425,000. This does not include the winnings of 1896 or 1901, which of themselves form a very handsome total, but are not at this writing available. It is safe to assume that half a million dollars is a moderate estimate of the winnings of Rancocas bred horses upon the English turf, where it is admittedly harder to win than it is here. And all this time, too, Rancocas bred horses were winning on the local turf."

"Long before the break up of the racing stable in 1886, however, Mr. Lorillard had bred good winners at Rancocas, notably Gerald, by Saxon, who was sent to England and was a really good colt there in 1881. Sachem, his stable mate, was not bred at Rancocas. Parthenia, dam of Watershed, this year's winner of the Cambridgehire, was raced in England by Mr. Lorillard, but bred at Chestnut Hill."

"Appended is a statement of what the horses bred by the late Mr. Lorillard won on the English turf in four years:

Democrat, by Sensation ..... $69,297
Caiman, by Locohatchee ..... 55,273
Sibola, by The Sailor Prince ..... 31,479
Jolly Tar, by The Sailor Prince ..... 29,212
Dominie II., by Sensation ..... 29,356
Diakka, by The Sailor Prince ..... 23,608
Sandia, by The Sailor Prince ..... 22,088
Myakka, by Sensation ..... 15,522
Jiffy II., by The Sailor Prince ..... 14,450
Lutetia, by Pontiac ..... 14,209
Meta II., by Sensation ..... 10,162
Tarolinta, by Pontiac ..... 10,518

"The following horses have won the sums following their names:

"Pedometer, $1,289; Jouvence, $5,795; Blast, $2,435; Illogie, $4,855; Allegory, $661; Old Buck II., $8,708; Benzak, $7,874; Chinook, $7,007; Dorie, $3,810; Dolabra, $4,696; Exedo, $7,536; Elfin, $9,425; Bellesama, $1,738; Bloozem, $1,000; Lakota, $1,425; Litra, $1,019; Pan, $1,430; Boomer, $2,254; Pascola, $1,357; Lapwing, $490; Quibble, $490; Manatee, $1,448; Perdicus, $1,010; Podosnap, $695; Pomfret, $490; St. Elisa, $490; Silvah, $1,932; Solano, $490; Violence, $2,277; Yumboe, $2,758; Astolpho, $1,530; Atossah, $906; Beryl, $705; Dorado, $705; Draco, $5,250; Glaring, $2,347. Total, $426,465."

"When, therefore, it is proposed to place at Rancocas such stallions as Hamburg, Meddler and Lissak, and such mares as Lady Reel, dam of Hamburg; Ballyhoo, dam of Ballyhoo Bay; Endurance by Right, Admiration, Rush, Blue Girl and that great array of high-bred mares now at La Balie, can there be any reasonable

INAUGURAL WORKOUTS.

Last Sunday was a busy day among the horsemen at New Orleans, as will be seen from the following taken from the Picayune of November 25:

"A visit to the Fair grounds yesterday reminded one of the scenes at Montgomery Park, Memphis, on a Sunday preceding the running of the Tennessee Derby. Fully 1,000 lovers of the thoroughbred were out to see the horses work and look over the many improvements made on the course. It was workday for a number of stables, and the track was fairly alive with racers from early in the morning until well on toward noon hour. Of course, the candidates for the Inaugural Handicap on the opening day were given the most attention, and the showing they made in their try-outs were freely discussed."

"George Arnold was among the first to appear. He had a good-sized lad in the saddle. After being trotted around the track a couple of times he pulled up at the half-mile pole and was rubbed down. He was then sent seven furlongs in 1:38½, the fractions being 26, 40½, 54½, 1:09, 1:23, 1:38½."

"Burnie Buntun, with a light boy in the saddle, was worked a half in 53½. She was kicked out all the last furlong. Tom Kingsley, with Jockey Harshberger up, was sent through the stretch in 25½. Bummer went a quarter in 25½. He was sore when he pulled up."

"Maggie Davis was worked five furlongs in 1:06. This was good work for her, as she will not do her best in the morning."

"If You Dare was sent three-eighths in 39. Ranco went the same distance under a pull in 38½. He showed lots of speed and was fighting for his head all the way. Mint Sauce was given slow work. He looks big and fat, but it may be that he likes to run that way."

"Steve L'Hommedieu's pair, St. Cuthbert and The Rush, were worked together. They went six furlongs in 1:20, with St. Cuthbert finishing about a length in front. The fractional time was 13½, 25½, 38½, 52, 1:05, 1:20."

Lou Woods, with about 90 pounds up, went three-quarters in 1:19½. Her stable companion, Eva Rice, went the fastest six furlongs shown during the morning. She was worked later on, when the hot sun had dried the track up some. She covered the three-quarters in 1:18½."

"Jack Keene had all of his older division out and gave them good, stiff work. Brawl Lad, the pride of the stable, with a big boy up, broke from the six furlongs post and worked to the stand. The fractions by furlongs were: 12½, 25½, 38½, 52½, 1:05, 1:20. He carried fully 125 pounds and was eased up all the last eighth. Little Jack Horner, with a small lad in the saddle, worked right after him. He worked in about the same time. Miss Conrad worked in 1:21. She also had her weight up. She had plenty of early speed, but tailed off at the end and finished out the three-quarters in 1:21. Keene is training a good-looking yearling filly for Ed Tipton. He had her out and she went a furlong in 12½. She is by Rey del Rey—Marsha."

"Dave Waldo worked three yearlings an eighth, one by Sayre finishing in front in 12. Senator Beveridge, accompanied by Velma Clark, was sent a half. The mare had the most speed for the first three-eighths, but the colt easily disposed of her in the final furlong. Their time was 12, 24½, 38, 52½."

"Enterpe was sent three-quarters early in the morning, when the track was bad, in 1:20. This was very good work. Petit Maitre was sent the same route in 1:19½. He worked along about noon."

"Trainer James had Alderman Carey's string out after the sun was well up and the fog had lifted. Reseda, with Blake, up, went five furlongs, the fractions being 12 1/2, 25, 38 1/2, 52 1/2, 1:05 1/2. She galloped out another eighth. Nellie Waddell was sent a quarter through the stretch in 25.

"All off the Fizer stable were out. Echo Dale, Miss Golithly and Tom Collins worked slow. Menace and Beana were sent along at little better than a two-minute clip. Both look good and are ready. Boomerack and Moroni were sent a half, the former in 55 and the latter in 57.

"Hart Gibson sent a three-year-old chestnut maiden a quarter in 26. He is a good-looking, and moves well. Ramcat, another good-looking maiden, was also on the track. He is a Texan, and is said to like the heavy going.

"Henry Simons' Jack Janowood, with a small colored lad in the saddle, was kicked out a half in 55 1/5. Simons was waving him on all the way.

"Fremont Sloan—brother to Tod—is here with a stable of cheap selling-platers. Among the lot is the Hutchinson cast-off, Wiedemann. Fremont will sell out next spring and go to Russia, where he will join his brother Cash. Max Hirsch, who, four years ago, was one of the best light boys around New York, will ride jumpers here this winter. "Easy Going" Fred Warner, who handled the jumper Miss Ransom along toward the end of the meeting last spring, showed up a promising "leaper" in Chiffon. With Jockey Hennessey in the saddle she went one turn of the field and cleared the obstacles like a bird. She was about the best jumper that showed during the morning.

"Tom Nepper had his recent purchase, Jim Nap, out on the road. He is freshening the horse up. Jim Nap was a good performer at the Latonia meeting."

RACE TRACK INFORMATION BUREAU

SUITE 500, 263-269 DEARBORN STREET.

40 to 1 First Race Bennings.

Here is a good thing that is entered in the first race, will have a good rider up and barring accidents will win easy. We can truthfully say that this is one of the best things ever out loose at Bennings. Remember we gave SWAMPLANDS to over 300 clients Saturday; was an easy winner at 50 to 1. We have two other good ones, in the second and fourth races. The odds should average 4 to 1 on each. As to our California selections every client knows by now that we are the best in the business. No one can beat us there at all, nor ever could. Last week we gave eighteen winners at Oakland, thirteen seconds in thirty-six races. Every man must win—it's simply impossible to lose on information like this. We are willing to go on record with this statement, knowing this to be the simple, honest truth. Never miss our CALIFORNIA EXTRAS, never a single day, they are too good and pay too well, and have for years proved the greatest investment for every betting man in the land. THURSDAY AT NEW ORLEANS 40 TO 1 EXTRA SPECIAL. This one is only known at this office. We consider it another Swamplands 50 to 1 won. Terms $1.00 daily; $4.00 weekly. Ready at 9 a.m. Also sold at Kolman's cigar store, 267 Dearborn St., and at cigar stand Adams Express Building, 185 Dearborn St.

Charley Moore was rushed too much in the early stages and his weight told at the end, but he hung on stoutly. Little Daisy is rounding to and ran a fair race. Curtney quit when pressed.  Went to post at 3:20. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Barouche has improved into quite a good filly. She was well handled, finished fast and had plenty in hand at the end. Honolulu ran a good race but tired after a short drive in the stretch with Barouche. Andy Williams ran a poor race. He was rushed up next to the rail in the first quarter and the effort seemingly told on him. The company was too warm for Colonel Bill. Sister Juliet can do better and by no means ran her race.
